

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA
ALEXANDRIA DIVISION

EARL DAVID WORDEN

CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:18-cv-00983

VERSUS

UNASSIGNED DISTRICT JUDGE

DONALD WEATHERFORD, ET AL

MAGISTRATE JUDGE PEREZ-MONTES

ORDER

Considering the foregoing Motion to Stay;

It is ORDERED that the motion be hereby GRANTED, that this matter is hereby stayed, and the following conditions imposed:

Because the criminal charges against plaintiff arose from the complained of arrest and seizure, and because the state criminal prosecution remains pending, through an appeal, this Court orders a stay of this case pending the resolution of the outstanding criminal charges with the following conditions:

- a. Within thirty (30). days of the date the state court criminal proceedings have concluded and become final, plaintiff, if successful in the appeal must file a motion asking this Court to lift the stay. The action will proceed at that time, absent some other bar to suit.
- b. If the criminal proceedings are not concluded within six (6) months of the date that this case is stayed, plaintiffs shall file a status report indicating the expected completion date of the proceeding. Additional status reports shall be filed every three (3) months thereafter until the stay is lifted.

SIGNED on this _____ day of _____, 2018 at Alexandria, Louisiana.
